

CJNU/Winnipeg Harvest

We are thrilled to be back with our remote studio this December at Winnipeg Harvest. This place is a beehive of activity at any time of the year but over the holiday season it seems more pronounced.

I think the season of giving back makes it hit home for me that there are so many people in need in our province and this place is truly the front line in that fight.

Some of the statistics are rather daunting. More than 64,000 Manitobans receive food from food banks each month and Winnipeg Harvest moved more than 11.3 million pounds of food through their warehouse last year. I for one can't even fathom these numbers. They share food through the Manitoba Association of Food banks and through nearly 400 agencies, including soup kitchens, food banks and youth programs.

I ask each and every one out there in radio land to think about these horrific numbers this holiday season and give what you can. As you wonder through the grocery store getting food for your table remember there are people in the province that cannot. Drop a donation into one of the Harvest bins on your way home.

I am knitting up a storm using up my bits of yarn for mittens for the MITTEN TREE at Harvest. It was a great success last year and I'm hoping for even better this year. Not only do some of these folks have empty bellies, they also have cold hands. I am challenging all my knitting friends to get clicking and dust off that stash of yarn. Let's fill the tree with warmth and care.

I'm wishing you, one and all, a happy holiday season. Remember moderation in all things holiday is the key with the possible exception of short bread. 🎵

Host Sponsorship, as an Operating Model

From time to time everyone associated with CJNU asks why we move so often. The answer is buried in the history of CJNU, or rather CKVN. Bruce Down designed the Host Sponsor system, essentially as a response to the need for the station to find space to work from, and to offer our presence on site as a boost to the feature sponsor for the month.

In a broad sense for the last 3.5 years we have sought a partner that was of sufficient size and sophistication to sustain developing the messaging and providing the guests that a host sponsorship offers. Hospital Foundations, major charitable foundations such as the Winnipeg Foundation and those in the tourist industry have been wonderful partners.

CJNU charges each host sponsor for our presence and their messaging on air twice per hour. We have been very fortunate to have a constant stream of agencies and foundations that enjoy our presence. 🎵

CJNU's Artist of the Month for December

This classical crossover soprano, singer, songwriter, actress, dancer and musician has had and is still having an amazing career. From humble beginnings in Little Gaddesden, England it was noticed early on that she was a talent, taking dance and piano lessons at age three. She has gone on to be one of the world's greatest known voices, singing in English, Spanish, French, Latin, German, Turkish, Italian, Russian, Mandarin Chinese, Japanese and Catalan.

For me her role as Christine in Phantom of the Opera is my all-time favorite. I wonder what she thought having Andrew Lloyd Webber writing this role specifically for her only to have the Actor's Equity Association balk at mounting this production on Broadway because of their rules that a non-American must be an international star. Lloyd Webber worked out a deal with them casting an American in the lead role of his next West End production. In January 1988 Phantom had its opening and as they say "the rest is history." The recording became the biggest selling cast album of all time, hitting charts worldwide and exceeding forty million in sales.

Ms. Brightman has had two rather short marriages. The first was to Andrew Graham-Stewart whom she divorced to marry Andrew Lloyd Webber. For two very creative people always in the spot light with the media and tabloid nonsense, it was a difficult time ending in just six years.

They have remained friendly and in 2015 started the Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation Sarah Brightman Scholarships to support students in their post graduate studies at the Royal Northern College of Music on the two-year Masters Programme.

Sarah's list of awards both musically and personally are pages long and way too many to list here. She is a committed humanitarian, being appointed UNESCO Artist for Peace from 1012-14. She has been involved with charitable work throughout her artistic career, promoting cultural dialogue and exchanged among cultures.

The most interesting thing I found while researching this article was that in 2014 Sarah began training for a journey to the International Space Station. Although she postponed her flight until further notice citing personal reasons, I can only think how wonderful it would have been to hear her soring soprano voice floating through the heavens as the space station circled our planet.

Stay tuned to CJNU Nostalgia Radio 93.7FM for the month of December and enjoy, as I will, the talented and gifted Sarah Brightman. 🎵

CJNU Personality Corner

Brett Buckingham has been involved with the entertainment industry mainly as a hobby since he was a teenager. He got involved with theatre in high school and university winning best actor award at the university of Winnipeg in 1967.

He pursued the acting bug after university out in Vancouver where he auditioned for a movie McCabe and Mrs. Mills starring Warren Beatty and Julie Christie of which he was offered a speaking part.

He had a regular job at the time and turned down the part.

He moved back to Winnipeg in the early 70s where he became involved with the theatre school associated with Rainbow Stage .

He auditioned for his first show at Rainbow 1980 and got a speaking role.

He played various speaking roles at Rainbow... in 10 shows in the 80s and early 90s.

He left the bank profession in 1982 and landed a radio job at CKRC in 1983-84.

In 1989 he left CKRC.

He pursued a career in financial planning until 2001.

During this time from about 1995 to the present he became interested and involved with nostalgia radio.

Brett was there at the beginning of nostalgia radio in 1995 with its many forms and radio frequencies.

He was asked by Gary Robertson to come on board to form CJNU.

He helped with financial support and volunteer support.

Which brings us to today.

Brett volunteers and hosts Bucky's Balcony every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon and hopes all the listeners will continue to enjoy and support our little radio station that could.

"I love being part of the CJNU family and the wonderful camaraderie I've experienced as a result of my involvement." 🎵

Bob Nolan

Recently a friend asked me who I thought was the greatest songwriter to come from Manitoba. Names like Neil Young, Burton Cummings, Randy Bachman, Loreena McKennitt, Terry Jacks, and Daniel Lavoie immediately sprung to mind however my answer surprised him: Bob Nolan. Bob is acknowledged as one of the greatest American songwriters.

Born Clarence Robert Nobles at 53 Lansdowne Avenue on April 13, 1908, Bob's father Harry worked as a tailor while his Irish immigrant mother Flora was employed by the Manitoba Government Telephone Company. The Nobles lived hand to mouth moving frequently. At age 8 Harry abandoned the family to move to Arizona. Bob joined his father in Tucson in 1921 where his name was changed to Nolan (Harry had joined the US army under that name in 1917). Bob later reversed his first name to Robert Clarence Nolan.

In 1929, Bob relocated to California in search of a career in music. Teaming up with Tim Spencer, Leonard Slye and three others they formed the The Sons of the Pioneers, releasing their first recordings in 1934. The group's success lasted well into the 1950s becoming the first country & western act to appear at Carnegie Hall. They even sold out Madison Square Garden. Leonard Slye changed his name to Roy Rogers and he and Bob appeared in some 80 movies together.

Bob composed over 1200 songs, however his best-known compositions are Tumbling Tumbleweeds and Cool Water both recorded by The Sons of the Pioneers. The Smithsonian Institute recognizes these as two of the greatest cowboy songs of all time. More than 100 artists from Hank Williams, Frankie Laine, Bing Crosby, Marty Robbins, Eddy Arnold, Perry Como, The Boston Pops Orchestra, The Lennon Sisters, Lawrence Welk, Willie Nelson, and Johnny Cash to Joni Mitchell, The Supremes, Don Everly, ex-Monkee Mike Nesmith, and the King himself, Elvis Presley have covered them. The Coen Brothers' 1998 film The Big Lebowski included Tumbling Tumbleweeds while the animated Rango in 2011 featured Cool Water.

Honoured by more than a dozen institutions including the Country Music Hall of Fame, Bob Nolan passed away in 1980 at age 72. 🎵

CJNU Far and Wide

Did you know that CJNU 93.7 FM can be tuned into your vehicle radio (in most modern cars) even after the signal fades away when you are out of range?

This is all you need to do...

CJNU.ca is available on the World Wide Web so as long as you have internet data available on your smart phone, you can go to our site and click on "listen live". (Pull over to the shoulder of the road first!)

Then plug in your charging cord to your vehicle's USB port, or in some vehicles, the auxiliary input of your radio and you will receive CJNU radio through your speakers.

There! And as long as you have an internet connection, you will always have CJNU on your highway travels!

Happy motoring! 🎵

Congratulations to Kevin Klein, newly elected city of Winnipeg councillor for Charleswood-Tuxedo-Westwood ward and also appointed chair of the police board.

Proud to have Kevin as one of our CJNU board members! 🎵
